We’re asking everyone who believes in the rule of law and universal respect for the military to join us in our “Day of Rage for USS Liberty Survivors.”

We have selected November 6, 2012 for the date of this event since that is the date for our general Federal election. Given the proclivity of the US government to waive the requirement for some signatories to abide by the provisions of the 4th Geneva Convention I suspect our “Day of Rage” will continue through the next millennia and beyond.

Among the awards won by the officers and crew of the USS Liberty are the Medal of Honor, two Navy Crosses, eleven Silver Stars, twenty Bronze Stars, nine Navy Commendations, 208 Purple Hearts, 294 Combat Action Ribbons and the Presidential Unit Citation which makes the USS Liberty among the most decorated ships in US Navy history.

Despite this, for over 45 years USS Liberty survivors have been treated with disdain and contempt by Congress and the Department of Defense. USS Liberty survivors have been ignored when they have tried to tell of the War Crimes that were committed during the attack.

Please help us by sending a letter to US Navy Secretary Ray Mabus.

The suggested text of the message as well as the email address of his Public Information Officer and mailing address for Secretary Mabus is available for download at:
