Cynthia Geyer-Fligel It's hard to explain the feeling, isn't it? These young (and, not-so-young!) people who serve and protect us are beyond my ability to describe. Our country is blessed that so many OFFER to do this job.

DirtyHarriet Callahan There were proud moms (among others) of the men aboard the USS Liberty too.

Joe Meadors My mother was proud when I served on the USS Liberty. Cindy, is it true that you wish we would just shut up about the war crimes that were committed against us that were covered up by your husband and his colleagues in Congress?

Tony Cartland I always liked the look of the choker whites, sharp looking uniform, and the pilot wings are real plus!

Joe Meadors Cindy – What would you do if Jack was on a ship that was attacked by unmarked aircraft, his radios jammed on both US Navy tactical and international maritime distress frequencies, his life rafts deliberately machine gunned in the water and his ship ordered to be abandoned by rescue aircraft that were already en route and would in all likelihood arrive prior to the torpedo attack?

After which your husband, a sitting Senator from the State of Arizona, refused to support an investigation of that attack?
